

The Comumbian Progress Dec 13, 2001

Search still on for missing woman

The Marion County Sheriff's Department has been interviewing close acquaintances of a missing Marion County woman, including those in other counties, but have still not located her, Chief Investigator Tim Singley said this week.

Stephanie Hartwell, 25, of 48 Harrison-Jefferson Road, was last seen on Wednesday, Nov. 28, and has had no contact with her family, including her three children, since that time, according to the sheriff's office.

Singley said the sheriff's office would appreciate any information concerning Hartwell that might shed light on her disappearance.

Hartwell is described as being about five feet, five inches tall, weighing 150 pounds and having dark hair and dark eyes. Anyone with any information is asked to call the sheriff's office at 736-2711.

Stephanie Hartwell

The columbian Progress Dec 8, 2001

Helicopter joins search for woman

The Marion County Sheriff's Department brought in a helicopter Wednesday to help search for a local woman who has been missing for more than a week, but no new information had been turned up as of Thursday, Sheriff Richard "Rip" Stringer said this week.

Stephanie Hartwell, 25, of 48 Harrison-Jefferson Drive was last seen Wednesday, Nov. 28, after walking her children to the school bus earlier that morning, the sheriff's department reported.

Stringer said that investigators have found Hartwell's purse, adding, "I'm not aware of anything missing" from her purse.

"We appreciate any help we can get on it," Stringer said. "Anybody who has any information is asked to contact the sheriff's office."

The sheriff's office reported earlier this week that Hartwell has had no contact with her family, including her three children, since Wednesday.

She is described as being about five feet, five inches tall, weighing 150 pounds and having dark hair and dark eyes. Anyone who has any information about her is asked to call the sheriff's office at 736-2711.

Stephanie Hartwell

The Columbian Progress Dec 6, 2001

Sheriff's office reports missing woman

The Marion County Sheriff's Department is asking the public for help in locating a Columbia woman who has been missing since last week.

Stephanie Hartwell, 25, of 48 Harrison-Jefferson Drive was last seen Wednesday, Nov. 28, after walking her children to the school children, since Wednesday. She is described as being about five feet, five inches tall, weighing 150 pounds and having dark hair and dark eyes.

Hartwell

Anyone who has any information about Hartwell is asked to call the Marion County Sheriff's office at 736-2611.

She is described as being about five feet, five inches tall, weighing 150 pounds and having dark hair and dark eyes.

Columbian Progress Dec 15, 2001

Family helping in search for missing woman

The mother of a Marion County woman missing since Nov. 28 said this week she still has not heard any news of her daughter's whereabouts.

"We're out looking every day, ourselves," Terri Hartwell said of her daughter, Stephanie Hartwell, 25, of 48 Harrison-Jefferson Road.

Family members have also been keeping in touch with the Marion County Sheriff's Department, which is investigating the disappearance, but there has been no information, she said.

"Her purse was in her house in her bedroom.

None of her jewelry was missing. None of her clothes were missing," Hartwell said.

The family has no clues about what may have happened to her daughter, she said.

"Stephanie has never done anything like this before," she said.

Hartwell said her daughter's three children, a six-year-old daughter and twin five-year-old boys have been staying with her.

Hartwell

Stephanie Hartwell had walked with her children to the school bus on the day she disappeared.

Family members have put up posters in Columbia, Prentiss, Bassfield, Tylertown, Oak Grove and Hattiesburg seeking information about Stephanie Hartwell's disappearance, but, "We haven't heard anything.

No one has called from any of the posters or anything," she said.

Hartwell is described as being about five feet, five inches tall, weighing 150 pounds and having dark hair and dark eyes.

Anyone who has any information is asked to call the sheriff's office at 736-2711 or Terri Hartwell at 736-9478.