

FRIDAY RILEY, Attala County

Friday Riley, 43, was last seen leaving his mother's house in the Zemuly Community of Attala County in December of 2012.

Sheriff Tim Nail said Riley had wandered off before, including once in April 2012, but he always returned home. Riley was last seen wearing a brown, orange and white shirt, blue jeans and a pair of blue and white striped shoes.

Attala County officials and the Mississippi Department of Wildlife, Fisheries and Parks combed the area and found no trace of Riley.

Anyone with information on Friday Riley's whereabouts is asked to call the Attala County Sheriff's Department at (662) 289-5556.

<http://www.clarionledger.com>

By:Chris Davis On October 15, 2013 <http://newsms.fm>
KOSCIUSKO, Miss.—Missing since Dec. 22, 2012, Friday Riley's family wants him back and now the Attala County sheriff is hoping to make that happen soon. Riley was last seen leaving his house near Sallis three days before Christmas. His family reported him missing Jan. 7. Now Breezynews.com reports Sheriff Tim Nail is offering a $1,000 reward for info on Riley's whereabouts. His family thinks he could be in Holmes or Leake County. He's black, 44, 5 ft. 5. If you know where he may be, call the Attala Sheriff's Dept. at 662-289-5556. - See more at: <http://www.newsms>