

PD has reports of several sightings of Mitchell but no official contact has been made.

"At this point, we don't have any reason to believe he's in immediate danger," Holmes said.

Hambright said Mitchell has no known mental illness but he is concerned about his husband's current mental and emotional state.

Hambright said he's been out looking for Mitchell every day as well as friends from Detangled, where Mitchell works as a hair stylist.

"He can come home," Hambright said. "Nobody is mad at whatever has been done. I want him home, everybody does."

Hambright said he wants his husband to know "Bo loves him."

Mitchell is 5'10 and weighs approximately 160 lbs. He has reddish-brown hair and green eyes.

He has three visible tattoos: A "22" on the right side of his neck, an Old English styled 'B' on the left side of his neck and 'Est. 1986' on the back of his neck.

If you spot Mitchell, please contact the Jackson Police Department at 601-960-1234.
