Circumstances: Tony worked daily harvesting oysters with his father.

On 8-25-1994 Tony went to his parents home and ate supper then left for his home on Ruth Street. During the meal he stated he had seen something he shouldn't have but then dismissed it as paranoia. (he was addicted to anxiety meds for depression)

The next day he did not show up for work so family went to his residence and found his keys, wallet, medications and Skoal which he would not leave without.

The car door was also open and there was a rented VCR tape on the roof of the car with his wallet and checkbook on the passengers seat.

He was reported missing and an investigation followed with the woods around the home being searched.

The investigating agency is : Jackson County Sheriff Dept.
