

Moises Jose Figueredo is a U.S. Air Force Staff Sergeant who went missing after failing to report for duty at his workstation at Columbus Air Force Base (AFB), Columbus, Mississippi on January 19, 1999. Deborah Figueredo, his wife, informed investigators that she had not seen Moises Figueredo since the morning of January 15, 1999. Deborah Figueredo said that when Moises left his home at 107 Aberdeen Ave, Columbus AFB, MS 39710, he took a small amount of cash and clothing with him. Moises Jose Figueredo is currently listed as a fugitive with the Air Force Office of Special Investigations (NCIC #W131040971). Moises Figueredo was an Air Traffic Controller / Resource Management Specialist with the Air Force. The matter being investigated is Flight to Avoid Prosecution for Rape/Forcible Sodomy/brandishing pistol. Per the guidance from AFOSI, approach fugitive with caution. Moises Jose Figueredo is 43 years old as of the date he went missing in January, 1999 (DOB September 27, 1956). Moises Figueredo is described as a Hispanic/Latino male standing 5 feet 9 inches tall and weighing approximately 136 to 140 pounds. Moises Figueredo has black hair and brown eyes. If you have any information about the whereabouts of Moises Jose Figueredo, contact John Fine with the Air Force Office of Special Investigations 571-305-8620

Read more: <http://www.missingveterans.com/1999/moises-jose-figueredo/>