

Cold front Thursday.

Dead Baby's Identity Sought

Lawrence County authorities have joined forces with the Mississippi Highway Safety Patrol in an attempt to establish the identity of an infant found dead in the Monticello garbage dump Monday afternoon.

According to the patrol, law officers have issued an appeal to persons with any information that will be helpful to the investigation.

They are requested to notify the Highway Safety Patrol office in Brookhaven, patrol investigator Donald Butler or the Lawrence County sheriff's office.